

Membership: Spencer Williams and Eric Messerly

- Membership is the backbone and driving force from which the Institute derives its strength and key to the success of all Institute activities. Membership provides the Institute with the human and financial resources necessary to achieve its goals. This committee develops and implements a marketing plan to recruit and renew chapter members.

Education: Ed Gebauer and Jeffrey Leemhuis

- Interfaces with the local colleges and universities to present CSI-oriented educational opportunities and to develop and support student chapters of CSI at those institutions.

Hospitality: Dave Petersen

- Responsible for the monthly dinner meetings, arranging with the venue, receiving and processing reservations and payments, and setting up the venue for each meeting. It also oversees activities welcoming newcomers to the chapter.

Social Networking:

- Develops and maintains the chapter social networking programs.

Technical: Rick Howard

- Responsible for planning and oversight of technical activities including the management of published technical documents, keeping them up to date with industry practices and standards and undertaking new endeavors.

Certification: Dean Bortz

- Dedicated to encouraging and facilitating the certification of the members through the CDT, CCS, CCCA and CCPR exams.

Awards: Brian McNally

- Recognizes the talent, achievements and notable contributions to the construction industry that support the purpose of CSI. It is essential to recognize those members and others who contribute time and effort generously. An award that conveys gracious and grateful recognition of extraordinary effort will encourage continuing contributions. An awards program intensifies member's interest, gains new members, develops new talent and stimulates interest in CSI's growth.

Product Show: Jim McDonald, Adam Olson

- Organizes and administers the annual local trade show and education day. The Committee establishes the program of educations and invites exhibitors to provide information to architects, specification writers and facility owners and managers.

Publications: Thad Goodman, Ryan Carpico

- Develops and maintains the chapter newsletter.

Electronic Communication: Wesley Sherrer

- Develops and maintains the chapter website and email programs.

Scholarship: Mitch Acock

- Coordinates the application process with The Ohio State University for the annual George Van Niel Scholarship. Sets the parameters and goals of this three-part exam, including choosing a creative and unique project for the students to specify.

Student Affiliate: Brian McNally

- Interfaces with the local colleges and universities to present CSI-oriented educational opportunities and to develop and support student chapters of CSI at those institutions.

Strategic Planning: Dave Petersen

- Guides the process of long-range planning for the chapter leaders.

Historian: Thad Goodman

- Maintains a history of the chapter and advises chapter leaders during decision-making processes of past decision intent and charter requirements.

Golf Outing:

- Organizes the annual Columbus Chapter golf event. Develops and communicates a marketing strategy to encourage involvement and participation in this fundraising event.

Nomination: Lane Beougher

- Coordinates and leads the processes associated with leader and award nominations for the chapter.

CSI Eye to Eye:

- Sources, develops and schedules the CSI Eye to Eye programs to benefit the membership and construction industry, which are compatible with the purposes of the Institute.